

Curriculum Summary Document

Year 11 – Religious Education

Engagement with Worldviews

Module/Unit of Learning	Taught During	What will students learn?	How does this prepare students for thoughtful engagement with diverse worldviews beyond school?	Links to other Subjects
Religion and Society: How do different faiths approach social issues?	Across the Academic Year	Students explore how a range of religious and non-religious worldviews approach social issues such as inequality, environment, conflict, community welfare and human rights. They examine how beliefs inform values, priorities and action in public life. Students investigate how different traditions draw upon sacred texts, community leadership, reasoning and lived practice when responding to ethical challenges.	Prepares students for life beyond school by developing respectful dialogue, cultural literacy and confidence in encountering diverse viewpoints. Strengthens the ability to evaluate perspectives, express reasoned judgements and understand how belief shapes identity and action in society.	Oracy: developing precise spoken explanation Geography: global development and community impact